

Sick Of Complaining

Dizzy Wright

Sick of complaining
Everybody gon' talk but when it come to it, what is you changing?
I be hearing that bullshit that y'all talk man, what is you saying?
If it ain't about answers or solutions, don't entertain it
I'm sick of complaining
Man, I'm sick of complaining
Everybody gon' talk but when it come to it, what is you changing?
I be hearing that bullshit that y'all talk man, what is you saying?
If it ain't about answers or solutions, don't entertain it
I'm sick of complaining

Up and I'm eating
Money all on my mind while I'm cooking up eggs with the cheesing
Told him I ain't got time, he gon' be fine, I just be teasing
Really it be all talk, playing hard ball, watch how you speaking
I don't wanna hear nothing, I don't fear none that's underneath me
Gone bad, long way from a small bag
Think far back, wanting things that we all have
That's all cap, want it, I'ma take it, I'ma fall back
All fact, I'm sick of bitches tryna talk back
Hoodie on, I'm in all black, I came to deliver the jewels
And I'm known everywhere I go so you do not get it confused
I pulls up in a two seater with around ten in the Coep
I can't complain 'bout this life neither, shit is the truth

Sick of complaining
Everybody gon' talk but when it come to it, what is you changing?
I be hearing that bullshit that y'all talk man, what is you saying?
If it ain't about answers or solutions, don't entertain it
I'm sick of complaining
Man, I'm sick of complaining
Everybody gon' talk but when it come to it, what is you changing?
I be hearing that bullshit that y'all talk man, what is you saying?
If it ain't about answers or solutions, don't entertain it
I'm sick of complaining

I ain't really got time for it so I had to switch up the narrative
Our reality is different, they see me, they see a African American
All praise to the most high, medicated, I'm sane now
Tell me what we really working towards, I just wanna know the breakdown
Hit the streets holding up signs, [?] race war
Tell us how you really feel, Mr. 45, come on, what you waiting for?
Just a quick confirmation, I know you feel the temptation
Complaining about all the negative energy, I know this energy wasted
Trying to be a success story, bad vibes interrupt that Change don't happen overnight with the good fight, where the trust at?
Can't stop, nigga fuck that
Bulletproof with the guards up
Gotta educate then liberate and charge up

'Cause I'm sick of complaining
Everybody gon' talk but when it come to it, what is you changing?
I be hearing that bullshit that y'all talk man, what is you saying?
If it ain't about answers or solutions, don't entertain it
I'm sick of complaining
Man, I'm sick of complaining
Everybody gon' talk but when it come to it, what is you changing?

I be hearing that bullshit that y'all talk man, what is you saying?
If it ain't about answers or solutions, don't entertain it
I'm sick of complaining
