Dizzy Wright

Take your time, my G, you got this shit
Do your homework before you follow things that sound legit
Just know your energy gon' show who you surrounded with
When you feel low, gotta change your mindset to get out of it
Stay positive

I'm not perfect, somedays my mood swings go down and up
Only human but when it's mixed with confusion, are we in touch?
Winning or losing, when I'm off the court I come in clutch
Finding out too much, yo there's some things we should discuss
I been kicking that world peace 'cause for my culture that's a plus
Revenge wouldn't be enough, my ancestors advanced us
That shit they [?] start feeling pressure
From the activist that the government try to paint as aggressive
Hear me out
I don't wanna lose y'all yet but I know how y'all get up out the past
But if I can't make a change I would've never took the rapper path
You might question your craft if you start to follow hype
You don't gotta live no role model life to get it right

Take your time, my G, you got this shit
Do your homework before you follow things that sound legit
Just know your energy gon' show who you surrounded with
When you feel low, gotta change your mindset to get out of it

Yo, easier said than done, I know this won't hit everyone
But I guarantee my worst [?] got the most when you see pressure come
Level one, that might be their favorite run
If they think you a legend they gon' tell you that's what made you one
Go back to them days but they not noticing where that pain was from
You still gotta grow my G, incorporating knowledge I got overseas
Money trees come from planting seeds, not smoking fees
Known globally but all I see is the love I don't receive
What's wrong with me? Currently got a home over my head
But I need owner keys, I swear that's what all my niggas need
But someone gotta lead
Proper planning got me like it's the positive outcome for me
This is what I would tell the younger me

Take your time, my G, you got this shit
