

Talk To Me Nicely

Dizzy Wright

Speaking from the other side of the playing field
'Bout to make this shit look like I got a label deal
Flipping tables on all my doubters that's placing bets
Come on you ain't believe in the boy say it with your chest
Tried to break my spirit but they ain't come correct
Been in the streets before that cat bus was double deck
Before my granny died I tried to make that banner fly
I failed I put up my account and I had nothing left
The pain of losing someone you love boy that's something else
Damn, I just learned to cope but I don't think I've healed
A broke mindset think that money make you struggle less Lost everyone I thought loved me but the love wasn't real
I had to stop acting average and re-imagine this They try to sabotage you when they can't establish this
I ain't start this real shit I'm just an advocate
They try to take advantage of me being too passionate
See that's where y'all fucked up
Cause at some point you got to tell yourself enough is enough
Don't trip life going to make you toughen up
'Cause at some point you got to tell yourself ain't no fucking this up
So we going to feast and I'm the meal ticket
I'm not sure I'm matured enough to forgive niggas
They leave you out to hang and dry when they can't deal with yo u
But when you do this over a decade and they still get you
How you think I feel for real I broke the barriers
They don't never reach out to me I'm like what's scaring you
They dropping albums but they don't think about including me
Without the proper help I think I maneuver beautifully
They tell me don't even worry about it sign this dotted line
Not many can say they living in they truth, truthfully
I tell them "no" cuz having Integrity don't cost the dime
It ain't what I can do for you it's what can you do for me Devotions that we put in place don't come with [?]
Now that my granny got Wings she right beside me
So excuse me in advance if I'm feisty
But when them tables turn talk to me nicely
When them table turn talk to me nicely
'Cause it's going to for sure happen
And you going to be on the other side
