

The Perspective

Dizzy Wright

She on Instagram flexing
Oh, she on Instagram flexing
Changing outfits in the mirror with her reflection
Them up likes always got her checking
Got her phone every second she feeling for a perspective

Everything she do strategic
But all that shit ain't need
Fighting with all these demons
Damn this life can be so misleading
But when you living life in the moment
Money come in and then you want it
Don't ask for shit from no nigger
From sundown to the morning
You'll be on your grind like everyday
Had a man had to separate
Build a strength for yourself (that's right)
The bigger picture is the better day
She got hurt did her homework
Continue with making the wrong turn
Made a change for the long term
You can't tell her shit now she all alone
She don't even want to comprehend
Y'all niggers too opposite
Y'all niggers too fraudulent
Now she in her thoughts
Lost soul and she can't be bought
Now the niggers wanna follow them
A little lust with a shame
She can't talk with a man
So they struggle not to bottle within Everybody got a past to reflect on (reflect on)
Feel like she was stepped on (stepped on)
Got up but she kept going
With a face like 'you don't know shit about me'
Ay, hey and I feel your pain
So Imma step back and respect that
You just trying to do your thing

Got her phone every second she feeling for a perspective
He on Instagram flexing
Biting his lip and taking' off his shirt
With his reflection
Couple likes always got him checking
On his phone every second
Feeling for a perspective

He just need somebody to bond with
Feedin into that nonsense
Liking all of your pictures
All in yo comments (Shit!)
But when you living life in the biz
It's better to look like the man
In front of your friends

With bad bitches on ten
That ass out once again
Don't got to pay to look
Mamma like to show it off
She looking good and she showing off
But they so involved
Niggers like me know it all
Proceed the lurkers I see the thirst
See niggers just being niggers
See bitches just need a verse
She don't care what we thought
She been going so hard (Shit!)
Get a little instant famous
Get her acting just like a star
I told her I wasn't a fan
But I understand just who you are
Do your thing
I'm a man of flaws and I ain't fine to Judge you for your waist
What's the relation's though?
Bitches be showing off so much
A nigger can damn near taste the hoe
I'm thinking that it's capable
A nigger can't hate
Cause yo confidence won't change
Now do your thing
As you cruise in your own lane
