

What's The Rush

Dizzy Wright

Real niggas can't just walk away
But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?
Real niggas can't just walk away
But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?

They haven't mastered their rough days
I bet a buck fifty, the folded and jumped lanes
Whole outfit probably fucked off one stain
I went the vegan route before all of the Covid strains
Mentally quarantined but they couldn't ignore the king
[?] stick to the route and that's by any means
November jeans, Sagittarius dreams
[?] it bring, huh
Judging your physical, your temple is shit, it's simple
They misinformed and the info is twist
Remember you infamous, you put in the work, not them
Dreadlocks from a flat top like Rakim
You respected for them gems and they expecting nothing less
I feel the weight on your shoulders from the pressure on your neck
What's the rush? You just in line for them to lie to you next
A lot of growth but no time to reflect
And that's why...

Real niggas can't just walk away
But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?
Real niggas can't just walk away
But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?

Brain moving fast as the city life
Can't throw shade under city lights
I spent many nights selling things for any price
It's a pity, right? Clothes don't even fit him right
How hard can life get?
I wanna know so I'ma flip work like a light switch
I'm rushing like Mike Vick
I'm rushing like I'm late for my night shift
[?] life should be what I'm taking my time with
Most disguise hate in kindness
Shit, most see life like blind men
How far can I reach? Put my all, pour my heart on this beat
I pull strings like the harp on this beat
Watch your step, I'm grinding like a [?]
These niggas only talk when it's cheap
I abide by none
I hold my own, shit is five on one
Face every fear, I won't run
And that's why...

Real niggas can't just walk away

But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?
Real niggas can't just walk away
But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?

They not gonna exhibit what they promise
I'm [?] from the disappointments if I'm being honest
Put it behind us 'cause it happens to the best of them
But they don't know that his ancestors protected him
Solid work you putting in but they just tapping in
The game shift made me never wanna rap again
Got me reminiscing 'bout them classes I was absent in
And how I tried to inspire America's advocates
I know the feeling of failure and those with shitty thoughts
My family left me in the dark but we don't really talk
Solo dolo still, love yourself or no one will
In my mind I can't seem to [?] for real
It's hard for paying for that reach without signing the deal
Unless you don't care 'bout the [?], you just trying to build
The path we take, I'm going off the laughs we make
Telling myself you only have to wait, word

Real niggas can't just walk away
But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?
Real niggas can't just walk away
But there's some things that I think we should delay
It seems like I learn a little more with every play
What's the rush for? What's the rush for? What's the rush for?

What's the rush?
You just in line...
What's the rush
You just in line for them to lie to you next
