

Downfall

DJ Antoine

Oh, once I was king
Yeah, and you were, you were my queen
And we ruled it all
Oh, didn't we, didn't we love
Now the memories and frames are just pictures hanging on the wall
And the house that was our home is just a monument to our fall

You think that this hurts
It only gets worse
My heart is so filled up with pain it could burst
How can I give up
I love you too much
The only thing I ever wanted was us
You, you, you were my downfall
You, you, you are my downfall

You moved out to the coast
I hear you're seeing someone new
I am living with a ghost
I'm still haunted, haunted by you
But I'll be around
If you're ever, ever back in town
Doors always open
I could use some closure now

You think that this hurts
It only gets worse
My heart is so filled up with pain it could burst
How can I give up
I love you too much
The only thing I ever wanted was us
You, you, you were my downfall
You, you, you are my downfall

I thought we were set in stone
Thought you would never go
In my mind, yeah, I should have known
Memories won't leave me alone
I'm stuck on pause cause of you
Man, I really don't know what to do
I've been drinking and smoking a few
I hope I don't end up on the news
Yeah, girl you know
Nothing compares
Feels like my life beyond repair
It's so hard to sleep
When you're not there, not there

You think that this hurts
It only gets worse
My heart is so filled up with pain it could burst
How can I give up
I love you too much
The only thing I ever wanted was us
You, you, you were my downfall
You, you, you are my downfall
