Baby can you call me sometime today
Soon as you do I'm coming right away
I won't let you down I'm gonna find away
They can never take my sunshine
My sunshine away

I want it all no girl that don't make me wrong
Just trying to get everything they said I couldn't own
And I don't care I'm going hard or going home
Girl I really need you to hold it down while I'm gone

I want it all no girl that don't make me wrong
Just trying to get everything they said I couldn't own
