

Do You Remember

DJ Bobo

Do you remember
The day we fell in love
Do you remember
The world was not enough
Do you remember
The best days of our lives
We're destined for each other, 'till the end of time

Do you remember
The best days of our lives
We're destined for each other
'Till the end of time

Close your eyes, that's all I wanna say
Remember how it all begun
Close your eyes, and you can feel it too
Remember we had so much fun

We were making love all day and night
Everything was crazy
I was the clown for us, and painted you a daisy travelling around the world,
You were by my side, was it a dream ?
Was it real ?

Time goes by, still walking hand in hand
And loving you is easily
Time goes by, you make my dreams come true
Forever and eternally

Never thought one day you'll be my wife
Now you are a mother
I see your shining eyes, I'm proud to be a father
Welcome to this world my son
We are gonna guide you through your life through your life

Do you remember
The day we fell in love
Do you remember
The world was not enough
Do you remember
The best days of our lives
We're destined for each other, 'till the end of time
