

Too Many Nights

DJ Bobo

This is a party song about love and lies
A letter in too many nights
It's new it's hot don't turn around
Shake your body when you hear this sound
That's great so what you waiting for
Thousands of people that want some more
Listen to the words see it in your eyes
I need one of your beautiful lies

So give me one of too many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of too many nights
When I will write you a letter
So give me one of too many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of too many nights
When I will write you a letter
It's about time for a combination
Of rhythm and rhymes and the party nation
You are in trance before you know
The music makes you wanna flow
You flow with the beat and you still want more
Makes you crazy wanna get on the floor
Open your eyes to the left to the right
Give me one of too many nights
So give me one of too many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of too many nights
When I will write you a letter
So give me one of too many lies
One of your beautiful eyes
One of too many nights
When I will write you a letter
This is a party song about love and lies
A letter in too many nights
It's new it's hot don't turn around
Shake your body when you hear this sound
That's great so what you waiting for
