Imagine

DJ Ironik

Imagine.
Just imagine.
Sometimes I'm scared to be alone,
Sometimes I'm happy on my own,
Sometimes I'm blue, cos I miss you,
And when I lay my head to sleep, we are together in my dreams.
You know it's true, I'll always need you.
Huh listen yeah
I'll always need you to,
I can be your lover you can be my boo,
Everytime I sleep my dream features you,
And everytime I day dream I just see you.
I just want to hold you forever and ever
I know I told you mant times but your mine forever
Whoever tries to bring us down really ent clever
Cos our loves gonna last, forver, forever.
So I imagine you and me sitting on a blue sky on a lovely day,
It's a lovely day, I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
And I feel happy as you take my hand and listen to every word I say,
Every word you say.
I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
We take a walk over the sand, a love like ours I never planned.
If this is bliss, can I die like this?
And when you touch your mouth to mine, my heart explodes I'm feeling fine.
I know it's true, nobodys like you.
So I imagine you and me sitting on a blue sky on a lovely day.
It's a lovely day, I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
And I feel happy as you take my hand and listen to everyword I say.
Every word you say, I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
I know you miss me boo: I do, I want you to know I miss you to.
It's only what's real cos I'm telling the truth.
My emotions are lose and my hearts missing you.
And as I've said before, I want you forever and ever.
I'll never leave you ever, never.
We can be together forever.
Huh imagine forever.
And yes I've cried and yes I've died.
And yes I'm going into pieces... over you.
And if I could and if I would,
I'd be forgettin all about you.
It's never that simple.
Uhuuuuh, just imagine, look to the blue skies and just imagine.
Oh oh oh oh ohhh no no no no no no,
And I just want you to imagine
So I imagine you and me sitting on a blue sky on a lovely day.
It's a lovely day, I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
And I feel happy as you take my hand and listen to everyword I say.
Every word you say, I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
So I imagine you and me sitting on a blue sky on a lovely day.
It's a lovely day, I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
And I feel happy as you take my hand and listen to everyword I say.
Every word you say, I'm feeling good even though the skies are grey.
I'm scared to be alone, I'm happy on my own.
Tell me how you feel, just imagine please.
And when I lay my head to sleep we are together in my dreams.
Let me take you on a journey,
Huh it's Ironik.
