Talk

Touch of your skin Blurring my vision Seeing the same film again Closer you pull me Under the table Sign of how this might end

But if you don't want to hold me Maybe I can change your mind Cause I'm waitin', hesitatin' And it's other ways to leave it But I've only asked for you As you move your body next to me There's so much more to lose

When you talk, talk All you wanna do is talk, talk All I wanted was, all I wanted was All I wanted was your reckless heart

Tal-al-al-al-al...
