

Ghost Rider

Django Django

Never to speak
Because never to breathe
Never to sleep
'Cause it's blame it all eve

And I'm calling, calling
Trying to get through to you
And I'm calling

Only your thoughts will ever
Try to deceive
Couldn't be brought somewhere
I'm ready to leave

And I'm falling, falling
I'll always come back for you
Always come back for you

Daylight fades
Growing open fields gaze
Nuns have prayed
Like fifty once made

Take my league and now we're
All in your thoughts
Take a leap for that mind virgin

Lay, don't drift away
Stay for one more day
And every now and then
We'll meet up again
Take a look at the life we made

Midnight strays
Standing up in cold rain
Words delayed
As we jump on the last train

Take my hand before we're
Further apart
We'll ignore all the signs that came

You are my ghost rider
You are my ghost rider
You are my ghost rider
You are my, you are my

You are my ghost rider
You are my ghost rider
You are my ghost rider
You are my, you are my
