Kick the Devil Out

Django Django

Huh, hello there!

Nothing is true and anything goes nowadays
Feed me the same old line about changing your ways
Keeping me up all night, I think your timing was smooth

Couple of days, no more, I'm living with the devil
Why do I still keep score, I'm dealing with the devil now
Show him the front door, I'm gonna kick the devil out

Don't be blind
'Cause he's no more real than you or me
Not another superstition that you can see
Gonna leave him behind in time

Keeping the fires alive but you burn what you've made
Idle the time away, look how far you have strayed
Up to your same old tricks but I see straight through you now

Couple of days, no more, I'm living with the devil
Why do I still keep score, I'm dealing with the devil now
Show him the front door, I'm gonna kick the devil out

Don't be blind
'Cause he's no more real than you or me
Not another superstition that you can see
Gonna leave him behind in time

Couple of (I'm living with the devil)
Why (I'm dealing with the devil now)
Couple of days no (I'm living with the devil)
Why do I still (I'm dealing with the devil now)
Up to your same old trick (I'm burning with the devil now)
