

No Time

Django Django

No time, to bury me down again
No time, I carry the weight instead
No life, if I'm running away from you Cold night, but I'm waking to something new

I want to hear those words again
No need for you to hold them in
I want to hear those words again
No need for you to hold them in

No time, to bury me down again
No time, I carry a weight instead
And I saw your face, I swear that the sky broke through (I swear that the sky broke through)
And in the gold flames, we knew that we'd never lose (We knew that we'd never lose)

Cos I only wanna be with you
And I only want to tell you words that I though I'd hear you'd say
Cos I only wanna be with you
And now your getting away
And I was only trying to be with you
And I hear you when you say
And I was only trying to be with you
And I know you feel the same

Cos I only wanna be with you
And I only want to tell you words that I though I'd hear you'd say
Cos I only wanna be with you
And now your getting away
And I was only trying to be with you
And I hear you when you say
And I was only trying to be with you
And I know you feel the same

I want to hear those words again
No need for you to hold them in
I want to hear those words again
No need for you to hold them in
