

Real Gone

Django Django

Seen no sign of life 'round here
All the curtains drawn, the streets are clear
Seen no sign of life 'round here
All the curtains drawn, the streets are clear
Take a moment
To realize

Take a moment
To realize

Reading a sign that's fading
Lost in between two places
We could've done more
We could've done more

Look for the days we've wasted
Swept up with you we waited
We could've done more
We could've done more

Seen no sign of life 'round here
All the curtains drawn, the streets are clear
Seen no sign of life 'round here
All the curtains drawn, the streets are clear
Take a moment

Hear what we want to hear
Got a lot we've yet to find
But the moment's almost real gone
Say what you're gonna say
We've been lost and now we're found
That the moment's almost real gone

(Wonderful, wonderful)
(Wonderful, wonderful)
