

Bow My Head

DJDS

You told them that I'm good for what I want, and I could pay it all eventually
They try to work me over, and they try to shake me down
Now I got you by my side, my luck's coming back around That's what I know, and they don't know

Hold my own, my head
When I'm laying down my head

Will you tell me who I am when I forget, when I forget, when I forget
forget
They tried to take it all, but trees don't fall like an avalanc he
I got nothing left [x6]
