

I Heard

DJDS

Heard
Heard you cryin'
Heard
Heard you cryin'

Hey, hey
You don't take time to listen to my side
Just know when he's gone I'll be by your side
Last night you called and I can hear you cry
Hung up my phone [?]
Hey, hey, hey

Heard (hey)
Heard you cryin' (hey)
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa
Oh whoa, whoa, whoa
Hey

You don't take time to listen to my side
Just know when he's gone I'll be by your side
Last night you called and I can hear you cry
I ask myself why I [?]

And still I wait up, I stay up, I wake up
I pray about you
I know I fucked up don't know face in this [?]
Can't live without you
But he lies like I lied but my lies were sweeter
He lies 'cause he want you
And I lie 'cause I need you

You don't take time to listen to my side
Just know when he's gone I'll be by your side
Last night you cried and I could hear you cry
Asking myself why I didn't asked you why? (Oh why, why, why?)
And my heart it hurts baby
Lately we've been at war lately (Oh, why, why, why?)
Just know I hurt
Don't care what I heard
Don't care what I heard

And still I wait up, I stay up, I wake up
I pray about you
I know I fucked up don't know face in this [?]
Can't live without you
But he lies like I lied but my lies were sweeter
He lies 'cause he want you
And I lie 'cause I need you

There's no doubling down
And take your head off the ground
'Cause the sun lay on your face
Until those beautiful eyes rain

I hurt, oh I hurt, know I hurt
Just know I hurt you, just know I heard you, yeah
Just know I heard you, I'm not here to hurt you

And still I wait up, I stay up, I wake up
I pray about you
I know I fucked up don't know face in this [?]
Can't live without you
But he lies like I lied but my lies were sweeter
He lies 'cause he want you
And I lie 'cause I need you
