

Throne

Djerv

Oh my. I did survive.
High five. Been a ghost, but I'm alive.
Down low I've been burned
Too slow. Tables are turned.
I'm coming to take your throne
Bring it back to where it belongs
You stole it while I was gone
But tonight I am coming home
I'm coming to take your throne

You're such a perfect metaphor. When you lie, I'm a lie.
You're killing us both. Fire, fire, fire.
I'm done. It's time to move on. Come on.
We are forever young

I'm coming to take your throne
Bring it back to where it belongs
You stole it while I was gone
But tonight I am coming home
I'm coming to take your throne

As I fought my way back in My powers grew more than a king
Fate is sealed. No way back.
Forward now. Full on attack.
Slayed and murdered on my way
So everyone could hear me say
The throne is mine. I'm here to sing.
Drop to your knees, and kiss the ring

I'm coming to take your throne
Bring it back to where it belongs
You stole it while I was gone
But tonight I am coming home
I'm coming to take your throne
