

Back On You

Djo

Dry those eyes
Hanging on
Through the tears
Sing yourself a song
Come back home
Buddy, I remember who you are
Who you are

I've known my sisters for a lifetime
I count my lucky stars that I have them
'Cause every day they are a lifeline
An inspiration just to be a better man, that's the truth
I'd lay my life down on the line for you, that's the truth
Sisters made a better brother

When life's plan
Isn't shining through
You understand
You help me see it through
So you can count on me
I'm leaning back on you

Now when the rain started falling
I had to close my eyes to keep myself from washing away
But in the dark backseat I heard something
It was you telling me, "I got your back any day"
My friend, my man
He's unlike any other
I used to say I didn't have a brother
I guess I can't say it anymore

Things get hard
You don't know what to do
Well I've got friends
Who never spin the truth
And they can trust in me
I'm leaning back on you

Get knocked down
Down, down, down
You're nursing black and blues
Well, there's that smile
It's just a missing tooth
'Cause you believe in me
I'm leaning back on you

I'm leaning back on you
Leaning back on you

I'll be there
Leaning back on you
Anywhere
Leaning back on
