Djo

I'm beginning to understand
There's no mystery to this man
It's the simplest things I need
Just my friends and a place to sleep
But I never fail to surprise
There's a feeling that's new to me
Unmistakably that's my voice
And its speaking as clear as day

"I've been trying to figure you out"
"I've been trying to figure you out"

Is the memory really mine?
Is the story I told just fake?
How can you get to know yourself?
Take a test and you get a grade
If the money just wasn't there
And the power had was gone
And these people were just like you
Tell me then would you lend a hand?

(I've been trying to figure you out)
Tell me then would you lend a hand
(I've been trying to figure you out)
It's not easy when you're closing down
Down, down

Tell me then would you lend a hand
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah (I want you r to feel me now)
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah (I'm trying
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah
Something's in my mind and I'm focused on you, yeah...
