

Keep Your Head Up

Djo

Why are you so low?
Girl, you gotta shed that load
That will bring you down
Every single place you go
You've got to love yourself
Go ahead, touch yourself
Take that time alone
Before your heart's with someone else
I've locked that same front door (For so long)
Damn, that feels so good
Why'd I keep it locked before?
Who is this old Bruce, what makes you so wise?
Something special in you
Everyone will see in time

Got to keep your head up
Got to keep your head up
Got to keep your head up
Got to keep your head up

The world's a dungeon now
Thought you had the higher ground
Thought that I did too and then I saw myself in you
So we're both alike, it doesn't work that way
Something's calling me
Something's calling

Got to keep your head up (Oh, oh)
Got to keep your head up
(You know, you know, you know, you know)
Got to keep your head up (I'll keep it up)
Got to keep your head up

Feels so good
But it takes so long
To unlock one's self
Maybe try this song

(Got to keep your head up)
Got to keep your head up
Got to keep your head up
Got to keep your head up
(Got to keep your head up)
Got to keep your head up
(Oh, got to keep your head up)
Got to keep your head up
(Got to keep your head up)
Got to keep your head up
(Got to keep your head)
Got to keep your head up
Got to keep your head (Got to keep your head up)
Got to keep your head up

Keep your head, got to keep your head up
(Got to keep your head up)
Got to keep your head up
(Got to keep your head up)

Got to keep your head up, got to keep your head up
