Roddy

Djo

Cuttin' the page
Things are looking up
That time is out of my range
One drink's what lead to the change
Out on my own
Kicked out of the show
I'll take what's mine and I'll go
It's just like my own brothers used to say

There's somethin' wrong with this world
I feel it coming on
And contradictions take their toll
Is that where we went wrong?
And somethin' struck me
It struck me deep
It knocked me to my knees
Roddy, step on back from me (Ah)

So man in the mirror
Make another home here
You're put together but clear
You're lackin' substance not fear
So come right inside
Welcome to my new life
Separation intwined
And I can't keep it straight inside my head

There's something wrong with this world
I feel it coming on
And contradictions take their toll
Is that where we went wrong?
And something struck me
It struck me deep
It knocked me to my knees
Roddy, step on back from me (Ah)
(Step on back)

(Amen)
(Amen)
(I said amen
Amen
I said amen)
(Amen)
(Amen)
