

All Yours

DKB

Brave

When you're in love but not quite rich yet
Show you my feelings, for me, that's not good enough
One day, I'll buy you all and I mean all
The Lambos or Ferraris, the world is all yours

Because of you, my whole world's different now
And I cannot let go, rather be beside you
Deserve everything you're wanting, so you get your way
Because of you, I'll always give your way
Whatever that you want, you're getting

Because of you
Probably spend it all until I'm hurt, you know?
Say the word and you know it yours
Swear that you can have anything you want
See that smile, buy the whole world for you
All for you
Say the word 'cause you know I'm yours
I'm all yours

Said I'm too young I haven't lived yet
Gave you my feelings, I guess that's not good enough
One day I'll buy you all and I mean all
I'll give you shootings stars, the world is all yours

Because of you, my whole world's different now
And I cannot let go, rather be beside you
Deserve everything you're wanting, so you get your way
Because of you, I'll always give your way
Whatever that you want, you're getting

Because of you
Probably spend it all until I'm hurt, you know?
Say the word and you know it yours
Swear that you can have anything you want
See that smile, buy the whole world for you
All for you
Say the word 'cause you know I'm yours
I'm all yours

Tell me the price you know I'll spend
Do that time and time again
Buy you more stuff
Don't let me go
Take my heart with this card
Don't think wise if you're smart
Just spend more and more and more

Probably spend it all until I'm hurt, you know?
Say the word and you know it yours
Swear that you can have anything you want
See that smile, buy the whole world for you
All for you (Oh)
Say the word 'cause you know I'm yours
I'm all yours (Oh-oh)

Probably spend it all until I'm hurt, you know?
Say the word and you know it yours (Say the word and you know it yours)
Swear that you can have anything you want
See that smile, buy the whole world for you
All for you
Say the word 'cause you know I'm yours
I'm all yours
