It's not hard nothings better than the ones you want
And I'm still here so bring me closer to the ones I love
And it's not fair to let you down and all the things you trust
And there's more here, so keep me walking through daunting dark

No one told you 'bout the pain but I can take you from it all t onight
I could take you down the back road memories of you and me
We can hold it in our hands

Ohh

And it's not fine cause I've got stories 'bout the ones we left the truth and the matter of time
It could lead you down a lonely path
No one told you 'bout the pain
But I can take you from it all tonight
I could take you down the back road memories of you and me
You can hold it in your hands

No one told you 'bout the pain but I can take you from it all t
