

21 Year Vacancy

DMA's

Wait here now
I'll be back for you
It's all I've ever known, it's all I've ever known

Where would I go, if I sold you
To a cheap idea that's running out of steam
Dismiss my kiss, it don't hold you
To a 21 year vacancy like me

And all that's been, collectively has been outgrown
Cause you are mine, you are

Wait here now
I'll be back for you
It's all I've ever known, it's all I've ever known
Wait here man
I'll be back for you
It's all I've ever known, it's all I've ever known

There's glass she screams on the road here
Comes from the drunks, to tell us that they've been
And I'll tear a hole through your windscreen
Crawl on out when it's time to leave

And all that's been, collectively has been outgrown
Cause you are mine, you are

Wait here now
I'll be back for you
It's all I've ever known, it's all I've ever known
Wait here man
I'll be back for you
It's all I've ever known, it's all I've ever known

Wait here man
I'll be back for you
It's all I've ever known, it's all I've ever known
