

Do I Need You Now?

DMA's

Change what you need, cause I'm picking up the bones
Fell from hills and I'm heading home alone
I don't need no fire to show me how to spark
Hello be thy enemy, I'll lead you through the dark
And it's free when you keep it
It's cool and unique
Never tear down common ground
I'll give you what you need

A brothers speed in need, cause I know just where to go
I don't need no enemy to tell you where to hold
And its free when you keep it it
It's cool and unique
Never tear down common ground
I'll give you what you need

Do I need you now, did I need you then
I don't know now but I'll figure it out
In a time to leave, in a space to mend
I don't know how but I'll make it the end
And I heard this time but silenced them
You tear me up and split it at the end
Do I need you now, did I need you then
I don't know now but I'll figure it out

Change what you need, cause I'm picking up the bones
Fell from hills and I'm heading home alone
And it's free when you need it now
It's cool and unique
Never tear down common ground
I'll give you what you need

Do I need you now, did I need you then
I don't know now but I'll figure it out
In a time to leave, in a space to mend
I don't know how but I'll make it the end
And I heard this time but silenced them
You tear me up and split it at the end
Do I need you now, did I need you then
I don't know now but I'll figure it out

I know that you will be here
I know that you will be here
(Ring it out)
I know that you will be here
I know that you will be here
(Ring it out)
I know that you will be here
(Ring it out)
I know that you will be here
