

Lay Down

DMA's

Sitting in the morning sun
Sitting in the morning sun
My thoughts, they drift away
With you

Shiver in the morning rain
Shiver in the morning rain
My eyes, they drift away
With you

Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new
Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new

See you in the midnight hour
See you in the midnight hour
To face the crowd with you
And stay

See you in the morning sun
See you in the morning sun
To face the crowd with you
But I know

Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new
Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new

I know that it's drifting through a pain
My friend, what's found
Lost in worlds far away

I know that it's drifting through a pain
My friend, what's found
Lost in worlds far away

(Lay down)
Lost in worlds far away
(Lay down)
Lost in worlds far away

I know that it's drifting through a pain
My friend, what's found
Lost in worlds far away
