

Time Has Come

Do Or Die

No turning back the last soul has gone The door is closed and the innocent one destroyed Our last chance to keep our sacred rights We are damned by our own guide, What are we supposed to do? Evil and fire fall from the sky the sun is dying maybe we're all guilty ? A divine intervention or a vengeance of the earth we destroyed ? For the final fall fall From the end of the old world world, mankind is the only one to blame
