

Love don't come easy
It's a long and winding road
Running on empty
Since you up and let me go
I can't help but wonder
What did I do to lose your love?
Oh what I'd give to know the reasons, baby, what made you run
Every day it gets harder to be strong and I just can't come aro und
But you never noticed
'Cause you're gone from the picture
I've been torn from the pages of your life
And you've never told me why
You said forever
Then with a smile you took it back
I just wanted some answers
Oh, but you couldn't even give me that
Every day it gets harder to be strong and I just can't come aro
und

But you never noticed
'Cause you're gone from the picture
I've been torn from the pages of your life
And you've never told me why
Why did you leave me
You left me completely alone in the dark
Why couldn't you tell me that you had fell for another heart
Every day it gets harder to be strong and I just can't come aro
und
But you never noticed
'Cause you're gone from the picture
I've been torn from the pages of your life
And you've never told me why
No, you've never told me why
And you've never told me why
