

Now Means Nothing

Dodgy

Now, now, now, now
Now, now, now, now

Where did it all go wrong?
If only we talked things over
You had the final word
Heard you talking over my shoulder

Everything's done by machines now
No one's talking anymore
All so busy living in the past
Now means nothing at all

Now, now, now, now
Now, now, now
Now means nothing at all
Now, now, now, now
Now, now, now
Now means nothing at all

You like to smoke some weed
Dream about the old days
This life, it goes so fast
Now's what happens
Along the way

Everything's done through a screen now
Is there a point to it all?
Now is one minute twenty seven seconds long
Now means nothing at all

Now, now, now, now
Now, now, now
Now means nothing at all
Now, now, now, now
Now, now, now
Now means nothing at all
