

So Let Me Go Far

Dodgy

So in the morning I awoke
I turned my eyes towards the road
I swallowed hard and smelt the air
I cursed this world for not being fair
Oh in the morning I awoke
And through the seasons I have journeyed
Without a clue to where I'm bound
I lost my bearings long ago
I watched our heroes come and go
And since then I've heard no sound

So let me go far
So let me go far
And when I reach there let me know
'Cos I'll keep walking, please let me know
You got to let me know

My belly yearns for food and drink
And my heart it yearns as always
Those pills you gave me for the pain
Made my mind never feel the same
Oh no, oh no I won't see my home again

The vultures swoop above my love
The wisdom palace steeple shine
My battered longing for the truth
Keeps me clinging to my youth
And what was truly mine

So let me go far
So let me go far
And when I reach there let me know
'Cos I'll keep walking too
You've got to, got to let me know

So let me go far
And when I reach there, I want to know
