dodie

I wonder what you'd say
If I told you that I'd wait for you
In every passing day
Would you give it time
Like I give mine?
Oh, if you didn't stay
I would wait anyway

'Cause anything, anything
For another run with you
No, I don't understand why
Anything, anything
Could make it not be true
No, I would do anything to be with you
To be with you

Oh God, I dread to know
That after everything it's only me
Who isn't letting go
I saw you holding on
But for just how long
Oh, if you didn't stay
I would wait anyway

'Cause anything, anything
For another run with you
No, I don't understand why
Anything, anything
Could make it not be true
Oh, I would do anything to be with you
(Oh, I would do anything) To be with you
(To be with you)

Anything, anything
For another run with you
No, I don't understand why
Anything, anything
Could make it not be true
No, I would do anything to be with you
Ooh ooh ooh
