Dear Happy

dodie

I missed you dearly
Thought I was nearly
There forever, at last together

Is our time fleeting?
Is even meeting
A healthy idea, or am I getting too near?

Don't try to fight it
You're (I'm) here for tonight
And I'll be waiting for you
Until we meet again

I know it's scary
But don't be wary
If we don't have that long
Let's not waste it feeling wrong

This isn't the end
I'm your lifelong friend
Sure it's been a while
But I'll be here when you smile

So don't try to fight it
You're (I'm) here for tonight
And I'll be waiting for you
Until we meet again

Would you mind staying?
It's getting late, but I will visit you soon
So just try to get through

And don't try to fight it
You're (I'm) here for tonight
And I'll be waiting for you
Until we meet again
I'll be waiting for you
Until we meet again
