

In The Middle

dodie

What are you doing Friday?
Wanna help my worlds collide?
Let's make a bow with old cut ties
Do you want his number?
Or shall I be the one to call?
I haven't seen him much at all

It could be weird but I think I'm into it
You know I'm one for the overly passionate
I like you, and I loved him
We could all be the best kind of friends

You said you're into closure
Shake hands like you're supposed to
I'll be in the middle while you two get along
You've got so much in common
Talk about your taste in women
I'll be in the middle while you two get along

Hey!

Does he smile like I do?
Oh, it was shared despite our flaws
I held his hand like I hold yours
Thanks for understanding
Oh, this could be a lot of fun
So break the awkward, come undone

It could be weird but I think I'm into it
You know I'm one for the overly passionate
I like you, and I loved him
We could all be the best kind of friends

You said you're into closure
Shake hands like you're supposed to
I'll be in the middle while you two get along
You've got so much in common
Talk about your taste in women
I'll be in the middle while you two get along

(In the middle)
(In the middle)
(I'll be in the middle, in the middle)
(I'll be in the middle, in the middle, in the middle)
(Hey!)

It could be weird but I think I'm into it
You know I'm one for the overly passionate
I said it could be weird but I think I'm into it
You know I'm one for the overly passionate
I like you, and I loved him
We could all be the best kind of friends

You said you're into closure

I'll be in the middle while you two get along
You've got so much in common

Talk about your taste in women
I'll be in the middle while you two get along
I'll be in the middle, in the middle
Hey!
