

Rain

dodie

I'm so angry, I'm finding it hard to breath
To control myself
I just want to scream out loud
Show the crowd I'm so angry
But while it's raining, I can cry
Cause no one will know if they're tears or from the sky
So I say rain, rain on

Rain, rain harder
I wanna see lightning
I wanna hear thunder

It's so infuriating bottling it up
Hiding it away with a smile on your face
Oh they have no idea what's behind that grin
Till you go outside cause you can't keep it in
And it's raining
Thank goodness for the roar
As it comes pouring down
I can kick , I can scream, I can shout
Let it rain on

Rain, rain harder
I wanna see lightning
I wanna hear thunder
Oh ooh

Why do people complain
There's nothing wrong with the rain
It washes everything away
Clearing my mind
I'm no longer blind
I can see

So I say
Rain, rain harder
I wanna see lightning
I wanna hear thunder
Rain, rain harder
I wanna see lightning
I wanna hear thunder

I wanna hear thunder
