

Rainbow

dodie

I was brought up in a line
But I seem to walk in circles
It's getting hard to navigate
When every map was never made for me

I thought it would feel good
To understand why I was different
But my title just talks over me
I never even asked to be this way

But to say that I'm a rainbow
To tell me that I'm bright
When I'm so used to feeling wrong
Well, it makes me feel all right

I didn't think it fair
I was not to be trusted
How can I be proud of What a million people shout at me I'm not

So please step inside my soul
I'd love to watch you gasp
You'd understand in minutes
And I'd like to think you'd miss it
Cause so would I

So say that I'm a rainbow
And tell me that I'm bright
When I'm so used to feeling wrong
Well, it makes me feel all right

Oh, so say that I'm a rainbow
And tell me that I'm bright
When I'm so used to feeling wrong
Well, it makes me feel all right
