Real niggas recognize real niggas
On a different time, that's why I never feel niggas
Get high every day, and slide through every phase Trials every day so they sip Wockesha every day
Never could feel my dawg through a call, I wish he came home
But you'll never get it back, I know 'bout givin' up loyalty, a nd you'll never get it back
And I know these bitches intentions so I never get attached
I just want to stack it tall to get the freedom for all my nigg as
Tell them niggas in the wall to give releases to all my niggas,
