

ROLL THE DICE

Doe Boy

I might tell you once, won't tell you twice
Fuck around roll the dice, might change your life
I know I been on your mind, I been outta sight
I got your back don't stab me in mine, acting out of spite
You done fell in love with a real demon (what you thinking?)
So I pour out all my thoughts, so I been drinking
It's like we don't be speakin', every weekend
Poppin' these prescriptions, I'm heavy thinking

Tryna watch out for my opps, I'm already tweakin'
This car just spinned the block, I'm already reachin'
Ain't tryna argue, already fightin' demons
It's yo birthday take my card, go swipe in Neiman's
Know you gentle bae, I make sure you get handled right
For a real one, would trade all my bitches worth the sacrifice
Had a attitude I hit it, now you actin' nice
Slide in that pussy then I kill it, need a candle light
(Where the candle? Light it)
Set the vibe, tell me lies and say you mine
Look in your eyes, Buy you a bag, then make you cry
Spiteful make you mad, that's the day you tried
Leaving me in your plans, that's the day you die
Bet not do me dirty, girl hold this thirty
Asked why I ain't cum yet, girl ask this perc
She was shooting with me in the gym, I let her rock this jersey
Wake up eatin' that pussy, bright and early

I might tell you once, won't tell you twice
Fuck around roll the dice, might change your life
I know I been on your mind, I been outta sight
I got your back don't stab me in mine, acting out of spite
You done fell in love with a real demon (What you thinking?)
So I pour out all my thoughts, so I been drinking
He think we don't be speakin', every weekend
Poppin' these prescriptions, I'm heavy thinking

He only 5'6, but I'm only 5'1
I can only lift you up, never make you feel small
Oh, why you wanna play when you know when I'm in love?
How we gonna grow, if we can't get along?
Mama yeah she warned me told me never date a thug
I got patience for you even when you on your drugs
Praying for you daily blessings coming from above
No one knows you like I know you
Always been the one to hold you (Hold you)
Steppin' bout him that's forsurely, no
Sex with you in the morning (Sex with you)
Hold me, hold me, move closer
I protect your emotions (I protect you)
They broke you into pieces, it wasn't me
I'm only here to patch you up, I'm what you need

I might tell you once, won't tell you twice
Fuck around roll the dice, might change your life
I know I been on your mind, I been outta sight
I got your back don't stab me in mine, acting out of spite
