Goodbye cruel world
Goodbye cruel world

Goodbye cruel world
I must be on my way
So long cruel world
No more love today

Seconds of pleasure and wine
Chasing down wasted time
It's useless to put up a fight
Goodbye cruel world

your cannibal circle
Slow around their prey to devour
Salt inside your wound and my sharp sweet
Tooth sinking deep into your skin

One taste of madness I can't deny you
One more taste of you as my sick obsession grows

I'm a circus clown
Hanging upside down
Laughing with the crowd
Gathering around

your cannibal circle
Slow around their prey to devour
Salt inside your wound and my sharp sweet
Tooth sinking deep into your skin

One taste of madness I can't deny you
One more taste of you as my sick obsession grows

Ring the dinner bell
Feed'em hope, serve'em pain
No effort on your part
No share of the blame

Hell is now my one and only home sweet home
All my shattered dreams now only flesh and bone

Conversations with invisible friends
And its off to the asylum
Bloody tongue, rusty scissors
Cutting off my ear

One blue pill is help for all the ups and downs
One white pill intended for the ins and outs
Am I cured even if I'm drooling?
Am I the only one that I'm fooling?
Goodbye cruel world I'm sailing on now into the great unknown

Freedom is here
Freedom is now
Freedom is priceless
Freedom is mine

Freedom is here
Freedom is now
Freedom is priceless
Freedom is mine

In the fire
I lost everything
In the ashes
Only memories

In a flash
My hopes had vanished
In my heart
Only emptiness remains

I'm going hungry

I'm going hungry

Freedom is here
Freedom is now
Freedom is priceless
Freedom is mine

In the fire
I lost everything
In the ashes
Only memories

In a flash
All hope had vanished
In my heart
Only emptiness remains

I'm going hungry
I'm going hungry
I'm going hungry in hell
