

Sweet Insanity

Dog Fashion Disco

convulsing to your violent rhythm twisting and turning en utero i'm out of my body and swimming through you a nightmarish dream like a maze dream like a maze

from the rolling hills of suicide
everyone will run and hide screaming bloody murder
with their heads of fire
there just may be a chance for me
my sweet insanity
if you would take me with you on your trip to the moon disfigured faces in technicolor like roses on the death bed of your dying mother as the seasons grow in to the angriest people sadistic and slightly deranged everyone has changed slightly deranged

oh your wicked smile oh your evil ways
won't convince me
the sky isn't falling down

look what we've become the envy of everyone

inspired by your madness like furious wind in a storm slowly growing cold i'm fallin in love with you
