

This Sow Is Mine

Dog Fashion Disco

Stay away, this sow is mine
Carnival barking, snarling swine
Slice the throat of ignorance
Drown you in your arrogance

The lust and desire, the passion, the fire
Ashes remain left in ruins
You chant his name, the torches aflame
They're all the same brainless sheep

Immortal legacy
Relentless stupidity
Writhing in your infamy
Spinning deep into the void

Fuck off and goodbye
Are you looking for sympathy?
Is that all you need from me
To feed your mayhem and misery?
Fuck off and goodbye
Are you looking for sympathy?
Is that all you need from me
To feed your mayhem and misery?

Your vanity, insanity, calamity, diseased
A fantasy of divinity has brought you to your knees
Obey! Go away!
Obey! Go away!

Horizon marching toward the sun, into oblivion
I need a mind vacation, some mental liberation

Fuck off and goodbye
Are you looking for sympathy?
Is that all you need from me
To feed your mayhem and misery?
Fuck off and goodbye
Are you looking for sympathy?
Is that all you need from me
To feed your mayhem and misery?

Someone get me out of here, out of here
Knowing Heaven doesn't exist
We better make the most out of this

A poetic descent into madness
Thank God it's over
Delouse the planet
Inhale, exhale

Fuck off and goodbye
Are you looking for sympathy?
Is that all you need from me
To feed your mayhem and misery?
Fuck off and goodbye
Are you looking for sympathy?
Is that all you need from me

To feed your mayhem and misery?

Everything you touch just wilts and dies
And it's really no big surprise
All of the sickness in your mind
Is bleeding out your mouth

Bleeding out your mouth
Bleeding out of your mouth

Fuck off and goodbye
