

Toronto Mug

Dog Slaughter Beach

You're in the hallway
Weighing your options, silent
Hand in a trash bag
The other on your frayed hem
I'm in the hallway
Opposite yours in silence
Hand in a trash bag
Scared to death of what you'll say
Meet in the foyer
Note that our friends have gone home
I offer to leave
Then you make coffee

Dumb luck, I thought
Toronto mug your father bought
You're on hands and knees
Looking for your favorite DVD
I lied
Saying I saw Annie Hall when I was twelve
But I only remember the first part now
