

Come Back Down

Dogwood

Come back down.
Be around and i'll be home again.
Cross my heart. Close my eyes, as I fall into You.
Be all that I need from You.
I never knew You'd take the opportunity to know someone like me
All of me rests in You, my Father.
You're my shield.
Hear me, all that I am is You.
So come back down,
Be around and I'll be yours once more...
Around and we'll be closer still.
