

Singular

Dogwood

All on my own,
It was just like the first time,
This could be the worst time to be me,
Spare me your thoughts,
Your position's deceiving,
I wish it would lead me to my own,
I tried to be strong,
I learned to carry on,
But people are happy just being sad.

Call me afraid,
It isn't so easy,
It's always been easy to be weak,
Over my head,
Like the water that chokes me,
You're my only hope,
That's what I have.
You're my only hope,
That's what I have.

Hand you my heart,
Give you my hand before I fall,
Take me away from my own mistrust.
