Doja Cat

A little more back and forth
A little more catch and throw, baby
The more we can clear this smoke
A little further I'll go
Maybe in time we'll know
Maybe I'll fall in love, baby
Maybe we'll win some hearts
Gotta just play your cards

Play your cards right
Play your cards right
Play your cards right
Play your cards right

Baby, be good to me
I don't care who's with me
Callin' me mon cherie
Tryna get in my hosiery
If you got notes for me
I ain't no employee
Gimme that two for three
Or you'll be losing me

If you catch it, I'll be on the floor
Can you pull my body off the bar?

A little more back and forth
A little more catch and throw, baby
The more we can clear this smoke
A little further I'll go
Maybe in time we'll know
Maybe I'll fall in love, baby
Maybe we'll win some hearts
Gotta just play your cards

Play your cards right
Play your cards right
Play your cards right
Play your cards right

Hey there, stranger
Take you where you want, you could say where, stranger
If you play fair, stranger
It's all you could eat while I lay there stranger
Girls turned on by danger
I'm turned on when he run that bank up
He's turned on when I fill this tank up
No bra, fresh beat, watch him scrunch his face up
I'm enough to wait for
Move too quick and you off the roster
Break bread, nigga, don't twirl the pasta
Hand on my ass, that'll stir the block up
I ain't just some girl on your notch
And not many men make me nervous a lot
Might splurge on the yacht
I'm tryna figure out if he deserve it or not
You got a way with your words, so they flock

Playin' all your cards right first and it's hot
Show me that you got the nerve and the chops
Maybe then you could get the permanent spot

A little more back and forth
The more we can clear this smoke

Play your cards right
Play your cards right
Play your cards right
