

Couples Therapy

Doja Cat

She just wants him to be involved
He just wants her to finally notice
They just need one more push to cope
Can we both detangle our souls?
This argument's been in the oven
We can't always be in control

Are you alone with me?
No one meets all your needs
Let the truth set you free
Maybe we needed couples' therapy

Leave me on read and fill my head with thoughts of dread
I feel so abandoned
But do you wanna change? 'Cause I know that I could too
Yeah, lemme talk to you
Gotta undo my selfish habits

They can hold that for you, that pain, that stress
Let go all past worries, let's face it
I wanna be the doctor and be the medication
I can't, but I know I'm booking us a vacation to Cannes
ADHD and some crazy ass friends
10 mg's and I do my dance
Cussing you out, you the one I resent
Cussing you out, I delete and re-send
Sorry, I got three selves, one's 12
Sorry, you gave me hell once felt
Sorry, honeymoon phase over now
Lock in, listen to me, baby, 'cause I ain't done talkin'
We can be angry, but can we be honest?
You been so fed up with the same ol' problems
Got a lot of bags, but you ain't know about it
You love this, but you so anal about it

Are you alone with me?
No one meets all your needs
Let the truth set you free
Maybe we needed couples' therapy

Boy, let it free with truth
I lent my heart to you
It's always taken two
So do you understand?
