

One More Time

Doja Cat

I don't need you to save me
I don't need you to read my mind
You're the truth that I'm facing
No more lies (No more lies)

It's a home where you're laying
And I know I gotta make you mine
It's a risk worth taking
One more time (One more time)

One more time (Whoa, whoa, whoa)
One more time (Hey, hey, hey)
One more time (Whoa, hey)
One more time
One more time (Whoa, whoa, whoa)
One more time (Hey, hey, hey)
One more time (Whoa, hey)
One more time

It's never easy
We're willingly uncomfortable
I want you to teach me
We're both feeling unlovable

We gotta learn to unlearn it
It's gotta hurt if we're burning
When we get closer, I curse it
Breaking the cycle, I know I deserve it

One more time (Whoa, whoa, whoa)
One more time (Hey, hey, hey)
One more time (Whoa, hey)
One more time
One more time (Whoa, whoa, whoa)
One more time (Hey, hey, hey)
One more time (Whoa, hey)
One more time

I'm trying to show
Flying to fall, dying to love
If you wanted to know
I am the one, try me one more
I'm trying to show
Flying to fall, dying to love
If you wanted to know
I am the one, try me one more
I'm trying to show
Flying to fall, dying to love
If you wanted to know
I am the one, try me one more
