

Silly! Fun!

Doja Cat

Wouldn't it be fun
If we went to a party?
Wouldn't it be fun
To fall deep for somebody?
I know it could be a blast
To just pop out a baby
And we're so very silly getting married in Vegas

Yeah
Wake up
Smell the coffee
Get a grip, boy, this life here ain't no vacation
Put the grapes down in the palm leaf
When you call me wife, you don't mean that
Dedication and anointing
That ain't no small thing to me
Don't try to play now, you're annoying
(Yeah, yeah, yeah) Medicate yourself
I'ma keep him outside if he got that dog in him
Boy, I swear, if you don't get your ass back here, I'm locking you out
He could hit the club and get fucked up 'cause there's no stopping him
Don't you come back crying, talkin' 'bout you know what you lost, boy, just get lost again

Wouldn't it be fun
If we went to a party?
Wouldn't it be fun
To fall deep for somebody?
I know it could be a blast
To just pop out a baby
And we're so very silly getting married in Vegas

Said, oh, oh, oh, oh, you're too perfect, yes, you're perfect
I'm not nervous, I'm so drunk, can you stop swerving?
You're my person
This my first time, I'm in (Love) Those men were practice in my past
Don't be dramatic, let's have (Kids) And buy a mansion and three cats and two garages worth of whips
This ain't delusional, impulsive, don't be rude, that's so insulting
Clock is ticking, I got goals and I got dreams
And I thought love was about
Trust
But you don't trust me
Ew, don't touch me
You're too comfy, don't get money?
Man, I'm glad for that prenup we signed last Monday

You're so unserious
You blow my mind
You've got me furious
No, I'm not fine

Wouldn't it be fun
If we went to a party?
Wouldn't it be fun
To fall deep for somebody?

I know it could be a blast
To just pop out a baby
And we're so very silly getting married in Vegas

Oh, oh-ooh-oh, oh-ooh-oh
We're so very silly
We're so very silly
Oh-ooh-oh, oh-ooh-oh
Silly
Oh, oh, oh-ooh-oh
