

Blind

Doll Skin

You need to lighten up now darling
You've got places to go
You're not that big now, are you?
Life's not an afterglow
There's brightness there, I know it
You're blinded by the dark
You need to lighten up now darling
Fix your eyes upon the spark

We can get through this
Only if you're willing to try
We can get through this
If you scream it at the sky

You can hold onto your hope now
Don't waste away the days
The innocence that you lost
The light burns you with its rays
You tried to be strong and blew it
Now it's time to take it back
Keep looking up now darling
Your smile's exactly what attracts

We can get through this
Only if you're willing to try
We can get through this
If you scream it at the sky
We can get through this
Only if you're willing to try
We can get through this
If you scream it at the sky
(Yeah, yeah)

We can get through this
Only...

You've dug your hole so deep now
You've lost your sight of sun
The phantom limb of romance
You're not the only one
Yeah, yeah

We can get through this
Only if you're willing to try
