

Daughter

Doll Skin

Da da da da da da da da da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da da da da da da da da da
She keeps on breathing

She's burning cities 'til they're down in ashes
Burning cities 'til there's nothing left
My mind is drowning in boiling water
But I'll keep standing 'til my last breath

It's time to make mama proud
(It's time to make mama proud!)

No matter what, she keeps on breathing
(Why can't I? Why can't I?)
No matter what the world may throw at her
She keeps on breathing
No matter what, she keeps on breathing
(Why can't I? Why can't I?)
No matter what the world may throw at her
She keeps on breathing

She's broken me like I'm nothing special
Sirens screaming, can't ignore the sound
I'm a force that can't be stolen
With every struggle, make mama proud

It's time to make mama proud
(It's time to make mama proud!)

No matter what, she keeps on breathing
(Why can't I? Why can't I?)
No matter what the world may throw at her
She keeps on breathing
No matter what, she keeps on breathing
(Why can't I? Why can't I?)
No matter what the world may throw at her
She keeps on breathing

She keeps on breathing
She keeps on breathing

No matter what, she keeps on breathing
(Why can't I? Why can't I?)
No matter what the world may throw at her
She keeps on breathing

No matter what, she keeps on breathing
(Why can't I? Why can't I?)
No matter what the world may throw at her
She keeps on breathing
No matter what, she keeps on breathing
No matter what the world may throw at her
(Why can't I? Why can't I? Why can't I?)
I keep on breathing
